

Support Program for Translation and Publication Application Instructions

For Fiscal 2026-27 [Q-TPS 2026]

1. Objectives

This program is designed to provide partial financial support for overseas publishers intending to translate and publish works originally written in Japanese. The program aims to foster better understanding of Japanese culture by encouraging overseas publishers to translate and publish Japanese works. The grant covers part of the translation and/or publication costs (e.g., for paper, typesetting, platemaking, printing, and binding).

2. Eligible Projects

Translation and publication projects of works written in Japanese and already published in Japan (works of fiction and works of nonfiction in humanities and social sciences). The projects must fulfill all the following requirements:

- (1) The translated work must be published between April 1, 2026, and February 28, 2027. However, applicants may apply for support for the translation cost only, provided that they publish the translated edition within two years of completion of the translation. They may also apply for support for the publication costs of the same project in a different fiscal year (e.g., applying for translation support in the first year and for publication support in the following year).
- (2) The original work written in Japanese must already be published at the time of application.
- (3) As a general rule, translations must be made directly from Japanese original works. Regarding translation and publication in languages where the translator pool is limited, approval may be given for support for translation from a previously translated edition of the work.
- (4) In principle, the contract for acquisition of translation rights of the original work must have been concluded. In the case of indirect translation, permission must also be obtained from the copyright holder of the foreign language edition from which the applicant's translator intends to translate. As for the translation fee, a written contract between the publisher and the translator must have been concluded at the time the application is submitted. Please note that the details given in the contract (e.g., publication deadline) and in the grant application (e.g., publication plan) must be consistent. Submission of a copy of each contract is required for the application.
- (5) Part of the draft translation should be completed at the time of the application. The draft should be equivalent to approximately 30 pages of the original work. If a draft translation submitted by applicants is significantly less than the required length without proper reason, it may receive lower priority in the review. When a draft significantly longer than the required length is submitted, only the portion equivalent to the first 30 pages of the original work will be reviewed.
- (6) The plan for the project should be appropriate to the realistic and practical completion of the translation.

- (7) Projects must not be undertaken for religious or political purposes.
- * Grant applications for e-book publication projects are accepted.
 - * The following categories of works are not eligible: Works originally written in a language other than Japanese; Reprints of previously published translations; Periodicals (including special issues), proceedings, exhibition catalogs, travel brochures, language dictionaries, and Japanese-language teaching materials; Works not expected to secure wide distribution, including those only to be published for donation purposes.
 - * Applicants may not reapply for projects that were rejected in the past without a new plan and/or revised translation.
 - * If payment to the translator is to be in the form of royalties (i.e., the translator is paid only based on the actual number of copies sold after the book is published), the applicant may not apply for support for translation (it is possible to apply for support for publication only).

3. Eligible Applicants

- (1) Applicants must meet the following requirements:
- a. Applicants must be a publishing company outside of Japan.
Individuals (e.g., authors and translators) are not eligible to apply.
 - b. Applicants must have the capacity needed to implement the planned project(s).
 - c. The receipt of grants or support from the Japan Foundation must not violate any local laws, regulations, or ordinances.
 - d. Applicants should have a bank account in the name of the organization to which the grant from the Japan Foundation can be remitted, or should be able to open such an account by the time the grant is remitted.
- (2) The Japan Foundation does not provide grants for:
- a. Japanese national government organs, local governments, incorporated administrative agencies, and local incorporated administrative agencies;
 - b. Organizations, institutions, and facilities attached to or established by the organizations in "a." (excluding organizations with their own legal personalities, such as incorporated associations or incorporated foundations);
 - c. Foreign governments (including their administrative organs, embassies, and consulates-general, but excluding educational, cultural, or research institutes, such as universities or museums); and
 - d. International organizations to which Japanese national government organs contribute.
- (3) Points to note
- a. Organizations that have continually received support from the same program for the past three fiscal years will not be provided with grants unless the Japan Foundation judges there is a compelling reason for them to continue receiving such support. This is a measure to avoid giving ongoing support to the same applicants, and to distribute grants to as many applicants as possible. If one does apply for a fourth consecutive fiscal year, low priority will be placed on such an application.

- b. The Japan Foundation and its overseas offices will not duplicate funding for the same project.

4. Grant Coverage

- (1) Assistance will take the form of a grant covering part of the following expenses paid between April 1, 2026, and February 28, 2027.

 - * Copies of the contract between the translator(s) and applicant, as well as estimates for the costs that the applicant intends to cover by the grant from the printing or other companies, will be required at the time of application. Receipts from the translator(s), printing company, and paper manufacturers, will be needed when the applicant claims the grant payment after publishing the book (in the case of translation support only, after the completion of the translation).
 - * The grant shall cover only part of the translation and publication costs the applicant actually pays. (In the application, up to 80% of the total amount of the estimated translation and publication costs can be requested, but note that the amount of the grant is subject to assessment and may be reduced from the amount requested in the application.)
 - * If the applicant applies for translation costs only or publication costs only, the grant shall cover a part of the costs (up to 80% of the total of the estimated translation or publication costs may be requested).
- (2) Applications are accepted in one of the following three categories:

 - c. Application for "translation and publication support": The grant will cover part of both the translation and publishing costs. The grant will be remitted after the Japan Foundation receives the required documents together with a copy of the published book.

 - a. Expenses paid before April 1, 2026 are not applicable.
 - b. The grant will be paid upon submission of the designated documents on completion of the project.
